Time Flies...

And so the year so rushes by Days turn to months and months they fly
Winter, Springtime, Summer, Fall
Winter, Springtime, Summer, Fall

And as the sun begins to fade
The night it darkens all we made
Morning, Noontime, Evening, Night
Morning, Noontime, Evening, Night

And as we age the way we must
We wait for life to turn to dust
Childhood, Young life, Mid years, Old
Childhood, Young life, Mid years, Old

Slow but Sure

Moving like a shire horse that pulls a tram
Moving like a car in a traffic jam
I'm getting along – slow but sure
Moving like a barge on a waterway
Moving like a yacht on a windless day
I'm getting along – slow but sure

I'm just sitting in the park watching flowers grow
If I am late I do not want to know
I've got a hold on this life of mine and I won't let go

Off you go ahead please if you don't mind
Seems to me you've all left me far behind
I'm getting along – slow but sure

I don't care if there are better things I like this place
I know it's only wind I have to chase I'm not moving on for I'm the loser in the human race

Moving like a whale landed on the beach
Moving to a goal that is out of reach
I'm getting along – slow but sure

Foggy Day

Help me, how did I get here
Is there somewhere clear to me
It isn't easy to see Foggy day. Clouds are all around
There is not a sound to me
I ask you how can this be

Walking around, arms in the air
Hoping there's no one there
Walking around, picking my way
Nothing to say
Get out of my way.

Help me, what are we here for
Where's the open door for me

That leads me to the rain.
Foggy day. I don't see so well
And it feels like hell to me
And I can't stand the pain.

Take Me to Your Leader

Take me to your leader
Take me to you hearth rug and hold me near
Take me to your leader
Let me take your doubts and I'll take your fear

Every time I see you My heart skips a beat and I know just why
So take me to your leader
Lead me to your cloud base up in the sky

Like floating on air, like a spark in the wire
Like mist in the air, like feeling on fire

Take me to your leader
Never let a chance like this go to waste

Take me to your leader
Only let a smile touch your lovely face

Like floating on air, like a spark in the
wire
Like mist in the air, like feeling on fire

So take me to your leader
Happiness is worth more than all my wealth
Running from the eagle
Even though I placed him up there myself

Take me to your leader
Take to a place far across the sea
Take me to your leader
Take me like a swan landing on your knee

Just the Way She Walks

It's just the way she walks
It's just the way she talks
It's just the way she sees me and then smiles
I saw that today
It's just her very look
And that is all it took
To make my eyes look on her for a while
Without a delay

It's just the way she glides
Her feet they seem to slide
It's just the way she closes the door
And I want to know
I never see her art
I never know her heart
I never know what's in her hidden mind
Is she friend or foe?

If she will be mine?
What would be the sign?
How would I just know?
Would it be just so....

It's just the way she drives
It cuts me down to size
Her foot is on the pedal of my soul
And flat to the floor
It isn't very far
When driving in her car
She has the style to heal me, make me whole
And very much more

It's just the things she wears
And all that it declares
About the way her fingers touch my hand
I didn't mistake.
It's just the way she dance
That has me in a trance
Her mystique still it lingers
Like a scene that's filmed in one take

If she will be mine?
What would be the sign?
How would I just know?
Would it be just so....

Oh Lady

Oh Lady I wish I had the words to say it Instead I'll have to sing and play it
Oh Lady There's something in your every style
I melt each time I see you smile
Did you have to stand and leave?
Can I tell you I believe

I could love you so much?
If you'd receive

Oh Lady I wish I had the courage in me
To tell you how I feel within me
Oh Lady You give me such an ache inside
There's nowhere I can run and hide
I wish I could talk to you
Then I'd tell you how I knew

In my heart I was lost
Were you too?

I wish I could talk to you
Then I'd tell you how I
knew
In my heart I was lost
Were you too?

Oh Lady Do you feel empty too without me
Or do you never think about me
Oh Lady there's lightning running through my brain
Just every time I hear your name
Soon I'll have to say my line
How I'm dreading that I'll find
That the love of your heart
Is not mine

Midnight Call

Midnight call it puts a smile on my face
Just like sunshine in the evening
Makes me hungry with a need to embrace Eases the burden and the grieving

Midnight call - The next best thing to being by your side
Midnight call - For just a moment all the pain denied

The miles between us start to disappear
And in my mind I hold you to me

I can be with you, wipe away your tears
And you can have my love completely

Midnight call - It is communication's Hobson's Choice
Midnight call - If I can't touch you
then I hear your voice

When I can't reach for your hand
To make you understand I want to be in your zone
And though you're really not here I can imagine you're near by reaching out for the phone

Midnight call - It is
communication's Hobson's Choice
Midnight call - If I can't touch you
then I hear your voice

So midnight calls can put a smile on your face
And make a difference to my day
Though we are worlds apart we're in one place
It really counts what you and I say

Midnight call - I can't sleep til I hear you ring
Midnight call - You lift my spirit, make my dull heart sing

Midnight call - The next best thing to being by your side
Midnight call - For just a moment all the pain denied

Midnight call - midnight call - midnight call - midnight call

Midnight call - I can't sleep til I hear you ring
Midnight call - You lift my spirit, make my dull heart sing

Midnight call - The next best thing to being by your side
Midnight call - For just a moment all the pain denied

Midnight call - midnight call - midnight call - midnight call

Manchester Train

Drops of water evaporate
To leave the surface dry
Eyes that once were filled with tears
Now no longer cry

Now I have to hide emotion
To get me through the day
Till I feel your arms around me
And you drive my fears away

So I'll take the train to Manchester
To see this thing come true
See a smile light up your pretty face

When I'm once again
When I'm once again
When I'm once again with you

Eurydice

Something's over, something's new I'm left here standing, thinking of you Something's in the air that makes me wish you were near
And I Don't feel quite the same now you're not here
Oh, please! Remember me, Eurydice

All that matters has gone wrong
I took just one look and you were gone
Wings of Fury laugh and fly around my brain
I wish that you were in my arms once again
Oh, please! Remember me, Eurydice

Sometimes I cry myself to sleep
But you're still there in my dreams
I see you as you smiled that day
When Hades took you away from me

If I could just die, would I be with you?
If I could return, my actions undo Round in circles I go searching near and far But one day I'll find out just where you are
Oh, please! Remember me, Eurydice

All that matters has gone wrong
I took just one look and you were gone
Wings of Fury laugh and fly around my brain
Oh, please! Remember me, Eurydice
Oh, please! Remember me, Eurydice

Song for Gemma

What a special gift the Lord has given
In a package less than 2 feet long
In her eyes I see the Lord is smiling
She's a lovely miracle that's born
She gives us hours of joy and pain
Our lives will never be the same

It's only God can make life whole
It's only God can save her soul

What a pretty bundle God created
As she grows and chatters all the time
How my heart it warms with love so special
When she puts her little hand in mine
And so the years go rushing by
She grows so fast my head grows wild
It seems so long ago she grew
And became a woman from a child

And so the years go rushing by
She grows so fast my head grows wild
It seems so long ago she grew
And became a woman from a child

What a special gift that keeps on giving
What a sense of pride to be her Dad
Not just a daughter but a friend
With a smile that always makes me glad
And every day her beauty grows
Just like a precious gem or pearl
Yet Gemma as your life proceeds
You'll always be my little girl
